Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: It was noted to applicant's representative that it was not clear to what liquidus temperature was being referred to in claim 23. Additionally, it was noted to applicant that the term "said crystallinity" lacked antecedent basis and that it was not clear if the term "crystallinity" was being referred to the formed glass-ceramic or to the glass composition. Applicant agreed to cancel claim 43 as being to a distinct invention.
